Xulon Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this work, the author sets out to instruct nonprofessional teachers in the house of God how to provide knowledge of the words of life to lay members of the church. Chiefly because teaching comes naturally to him, he proceeded to teach the teachers in a very professional way using the best teacher and illustrator of all ages; the Lord Jesus Christ as his study case in instruction. He presents the lay church teachers as little Christ instructing yet more kindergarten Christ. He subtly instructs the little Christs to learn how to teach. The author sometimes commands the teacher to take certain steps like studying the word of God, receiving the Holy Spirit, if he finds that such orders are most essential for the apprentice teacher to graduate to proficiency. He highlights Christ teaching techniques of removing the mental barrier of his students by use of daily living illustrations and parables. The study of this book will make you evaluate yourself and learn to teach better. Azubike Chukwueloka Agobua is simply a christian, disciple of christ, and member of the Lord's body, the church, as described in the new testament. He has been blessed to serve as teacher of the bible and minister of the gospel for 19 years. He currently works as a supply chain supervisor in one of the multinational oil companies. He is also an associate member of the British Computer Society. As an Ordained Evangelist, he has helped establish 3 Deliverance and Healing Units in different parts of Nigeria. He serves as the head, training, counselling and seminars of the Deliverance and Healing Ministry(D.H.M.) in St. Jude's Military Church,...
