The charge for gas is $1.20 a 1,000 cubic feet, a discount of 10 cents on this price being allowed for prompt payment. The number of gas stoves known to be in use in the city in May, 1911, was about 6,800. The private charities of the city are not organized, differing in this from so many American cities. Public assistance is controlled by the City Government and the principles of administration and relief are generally similar to those in other cities of the State. Indoor relief is given at the City Home, a comfortable, neatly furnished house, with farm lands attached, on the outskirts of the city. The number of inmates of both sexes is usually about 100, nearly all of whom are of very advanced age....
