CHAPTER II CHILDHOOD AND YOUTH (April, 1820--November, 1837) The house in which George Spencer and his wife began their married life, and in which their son first saw the light on April 27, 1820, was 12, Exeter Row, now 27, Exeter Street, the fourth entry from the Exeter Arms. In the baptism and naming of the child his father was not a man to be led by custom. Yet he was alive to the bearing of his non-conforming attitude on the future of his son. When it was suggested by his brother Thomas that the baptism should take place in church, as it might be of importance to the boy hereafter to be in the Parish Register, he wrote: I almost feel inclined to ask S--the incumbent of St. Peters Church if it would be allowed to register the birth of a child in the Parish Register, without having him baptised. And so to have him baptised at the chapel. The ceremony was performed on June 19 by John Kershaw, birth and baptism being registered at the Methodist Register Office, 66, Paternoster Row, London, on July 1. The name Herbert had been suggested by lines written in a churchyard of Richmond, in Yorkshire, by Herbert Knowles, forming the conclusion of an article on Cemeteries and Catacombs in Paris, in the Quarterly Review for April, 1819. Of the early years of the boys life little is known; but one may infer that they were lacking...
