Not illustrated. 1915 Excerpt: .people can more easily grasp the general principles of such a reform, and more readily appreciate the equity of the system, when it is demonstrated to them by means of an actual election in which they have taken part. Already some results of this direct method of propaganda may be noted. In addition to the endorsement of the Trades and Labor Council mentioned above, the movement has received support from other quarters. At the general meeting of the Ottawa Conservative Club, held on March 12th, five days after Mr. Hoag s address, Mr. N. Champagne, a controller of the city who is a very prominent man in civic affairs, introduced a motion advocating the preferential ballot in selecting members as candidates for the Provincial and Dominion elections. He stated that under the present regulation a candidate who got the lowest number of votes dropped out, leaving...
