[.] Thou hast seen to-day, son, one of the world s schemers, and thou hadst been, as was natural, deceived by him. With ill men first impressions are the true ones. Thou hadst been more than a stripling of the cloister, and we had taught thee over well for thy years, had he, whose power has lain in such arts, not made thee love him in spite of thyself. Son, dost thou know why this Maugher lies here in exile? Ay, Father, was he not like St. John of old, who said, Thou shalt not have her: to King Herod? answered I, as I thought aptly. Indeed, my son, they said so, and strong were the archbishop s words when Duke William wedded against God s law. But thou wilt learn, [.]
