Justice is the virtue which assigns to every one his due, and in this shews nhpriipnce tp the law. This virtue and the two following, wTiTcli are ait specially characterised by obedience to the law , are thereby invested with a political and objective character, and distinguished from the remainder, which are rather subjective and individual. The end and object of the true statesman is to make the citizens good, and this must be effected by training them in obedience to the laws of that form of government under which they live; the type of the perfect citizen varying under various constitutions. 8ol Si xai 6 Hot dXr/dnav...
