In the drawing before us, we however notice, that the nimbus of Christ is cruciferous, and the right hand raised in the act of benediction, but with all the fingers extended, (contrary to the practice in the Romish church). Here, too, as well as in the other miniature copied in my plate, we find the Saviour represented according to the most ancient type of Christ, as a young man, and without a beard. A calendar, with figures of the zodiacal signs at the head of each month, and with ornamental initial letters (kl), and tail-pieces--extends to the verso of leaf 15. The...
