

The Sea Inside

By Hoare, Philip

Melville House, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Mr. Hoare's gimlet eye sees the magical in the mundane. 'The Sea Inside' embraces the dangers and mysteries of the natural world and in them finds transcendental awe." -- The Wall Street Journal "This is not a book following the geography of the sea; nor is it a history of sailing. It is an attempt to establish and examine the oneness that the Maori have understood for years: There is no difference between life on land and life in the sea. A beautifully written memoir/travelogue with readable diversions into philosophy." -- Kirkus Reviews "Hoare's writing awakens the senses with visions, sounds, and smells of the ocean; his delight and interest in nature will encourage readers to look around with new eyes." -- Publishers Weekly , starred review "Literary history and natural history entwine so seamlessly in Hoare's narrative that the barrier between readers and the sea within all of us blurs and disappears." -- Booklist , starred review "Here is the distilled essence of Hoare's work: one part poetry, one part record, and one part a plea for us to pay attention to these..."

It is just one of my personal favorite publications. It is among the most awesome publications I have read. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
