Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: .Court, can be speedily curbed by the determination of a Chief Justice who can get at the facts and call on an offending judge for an explanation. A thoroughgoing system of records, such as obtains in the New York City Magistrates Court, will enable a Chief Justice to detect promptly and to stop such abuse of judicial power. And in this task the Chief Justice should have the cooperation of a Bar Association committee on the administration of justice which can, through a professional secretary, keep its own vigilant watch on the situation. 4. Further safeguards should be thrown about the use of the nolle prosequi. The motion should be filed like any other motion, and should specify the prosecutor s reasons for declining to prosecute. This change should be effected by rule of court, and it should always be in the courts further discretion whether the complaining witness should be notified and whether there should be general notice by publication. It would clear the prevailing atmosphere if the court should immediately promulgate a rule providing (1) at least seven days notice to the complaining witness and the Bureau of Criminal Identification of the filing of every such motion, and (2) definite days for the hearing and determination in open court of such motions. This rather rigid rule of procedure could be altered when circumstances altered. 5. The practice of jailing complaining witnesses in default of bail should be abandoned. Such witnesses should be released on...
