Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the coming weeks and months Congress will consider legislation appropriating funds for the remainder of FY2011 and for FY2012. The budget debate will establish national priorities and will take place within the context of growing concerns about the need to address federal budget deficits, the national debt, and a sluggish economic recovery following the longest and deepest recession since the Great Depression. The Obama Administration and the 112th Congress may consider and debate a number of approaches to spur economic activity and job growth, including federal public works and community and economic development programs. In addition, the Administration and Congress must arrive at a consensus on how to address long term deficit reduction, including spending cuts. The Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Community Development Fund (CDF), which includes the Community Development Block Grants (CDBG), are among the programs that Congress may consider candidates for funding reduction or elimination. On February 19, 2011, the House of Representatives passed H.R. 1, a bill that would fund federal agencies for the remainder of FY2011. The House-passed version...
